

Naturally repellent

In answer to Sarah Holmes' plea for natural methods for controlling slugs and snails in Have Your Say, (July issue), I have just the recipe. Take one bulb of garlic, crush and add to 1 litre of water. Heat gently for 5 minutes. Strain, bottle and keep in the fridge, (don't forget to label). To use: mix 1 tablespoon to 1 litre of water and spray on your plants.

Maureen Robson, by email

We say Have you got any natural methods to control pests? Write in and let us know.

September 2016